

Serving Disconnected Youth

Key Target Areas

Disconnected youth are teenagers and young people, ages 16-24, who are neither working or in school. The plan is to prevent and reduce youth disconnection by utilizing strategies that target the key areas below.

* This could include the following: (a) pregnant/parenting youth (b) foster care youth (c) homeless youth (d) youth with disabilities